The Daylight Store

Here's an Opportunity. Ladies' and Children's Jackets.

Before we invite you to our Fall opening we are to give you a chance to buy what we had left over from last season at a small price. Lengths and styles are so near this season's that you could not pick them out. Children's Coats do not change at all. Whatever comes off the price goes into your pocket. Most departments put these in as new. We'll close them as follows.

Children's and Misses' Coats.

There are all sizes in these garments from 4 years up to 14 years old. We will sell sizes from this lot as follows:

Coats that were $2.98, this one week's sale.....	$1.75
Coats that were 3.50, this one week's sale.....	2.49
Coats that were 5.00, this one week's sale.....	2.98
Coats that were 6.00, this one week's sale.....	3.98
Coats that were 10.00, this one week's sale.....	6.98
Coats that were 12.00, this one week's sale.....	7.98

Ladies' Coats.

You would not want to sell your last Winter's Coat at these prices unless it shows wear:

Coats that were $12.50, this one week's sale.....	$6.98
Coats that were 15.00, this one week's sale.....	7.98
Coats that were 17.00, this one week's sale.....	8.98
Coats that were 20.00, this one week's sale.....	9.98

If we show you a Coat and do not mention style, it's new. If it's last season's style we say so.

THE CLARKE MURDER.

Seven Artillerymen Charged With Complicity in Killing the Corporal Athens, O., Sept. 17.—Seven artillerymen at the Fourteenth United States Battery have arrived here from Fort Sheridan and have been placed in jail, charged with complicity in killing Corporal Charles Clarke on the streets of Athens during the military maneuvers Aug. 9.

The seven artillerymen are Sergeants Lott and Snyder, Trumpeter Plumber and Privates Johnston, Davidson, Barnett and Pierson. The men came strongly guarded by a squad of infantry.

The hearing of these men and the five others who have been in jail since the killing of Clarke will take place Monday.

Strike Throughout Sicily.

Rome, Sept. 17.—To protest against a conflict between strikers and the police, in which two strikers, a Sardinian and a Sicilian, were killed, the Socialists have decided on a general strike throughout Italy, which began at Milan and threatens to spread through the whole peninsula. The government has taken extraordinary measures to suppress the strike and has stopped all telegrams referring to it.
